1. This is a petition impugning an order granting Rs.1000/- as interim maintenance to the wife. The said order was passed on 28.9.2005. The husband applied for review but the family Court has refused to review. It is sought to be argued that there is no material produced by the wife as to what was the salary of the petitioner. The petitioner was contending that he is working as a casual labourer and is getting Rs.1000/- per month. These are matters of evidence. Petition is therefore dismissed.
